

Write Right Now

Who?

YOU! Think about what makes you YOU. What do you love? What do you wish you knew more about?

What?

Write a poem, a joke, a song, a recipe, a speech, a movie script, a journal entry—anything you want!

Where?

Sitting at a desk, standing at the kitchen counter, lying on a beach—anywhere!

Why?

Because writing is MAGIC! No one has the stories that you have. When you write, you invent a brand-new “thing” that comes from your own mind and heart.

When?

NOW! (Or whenever an idea pops into your head that you can't seem to shake!)

How?

Don't think, just write. Take out a sheet of paper and a pencil. Set a timer for five minutes. Start writing everything in your head. You will be amazed by the creative things your brain thinks up! Have fun playing with all your new ideas!
