

MEET DEBBI MICHIKO FLORENCE!

What is your book series about?

It is about 8-year-old Kaita Takano and her adventures fostering pets with her family.

Do you have any pets?

Right now I have a rescue dog named Kiku (which means chrysanthemum in Japanese), a rabbit named Aki (which means autumn in Japanese), and two ducks, Darcy and Lizzy.

Have you ever fostered an animal before?
I have not fostered a pet before, but I hope to in the future when I have more time and am not traveling so much.

What does home mean to you?

A place to belong and feel safe and loved.

What do you love most about animals?

They never judge you and love you for who you are.

What do you want readers to take away from your books?
Fostering pets is a great way to help animals.

MY FURRY FOSTER FAMILY

Eight-year-old Kaita Takano has one dog, a miniature dachshund named Ollie. But there's never just one animal in the Takano house. Kaita and her family foster animals rescued by a local animal rescue group. It can be hard to say goodbye when the animals find forever homes, but Kaita is happy for them and excited to welcome a new foster animal to her family.
